

I do not want any loosening of the No Call list requirements! I am on the no call list yet I still receive unwanted calls. I have turned in info on these calls in the past. These companies have lately been so belligerent that when I ask who is calling they will not even answer for fear of being fined.